

BRUSHES WITH LIFE: ART, ARTISTS, AND MENTAL ILLNESS
A NEW FILM BY PHILIP BRUBAKER

Art Work by Kwami Jackson

Brushes with Life:

Art, Artists, and Mental Illness

A film by Philip Brubaker

Free and Open to the Public

Sunday, October 11, 3:00pm

The Carolina Theatre

309 West Morgan Street

Durham

The screening will be followed by a Q&A with the filmmaker and an Art Display and Reception in the Connie Moses Ballroom

Brushes With Life: Art, Artists and Mental Illness is an award-winning patient art gallery located at the NC Neurosciences Hospital in the halls approaching the psychotic disorders inpatient unit.

The unit is part of the UNC Schizophrenia Treatment and Evaluation Program, which provides inpatient and outpatient care for patients dealing with psychotic symptoms or illnesses such as schizophrenia and schizoaffective disorder.

“Local filmmaker Philip Brubaker has created a powerful documentary exploring the project and it’s themes of mental illness, creation, and hope.”

Event Sponsors:

THE
DURHAM CENTER
Managing Behavioral Health & Disability Services

DUKE UNIVERSITY
HEALTH SYSTEM